

Numinous

A main hurdle is the Entrenched Art = Useless. It is a manifest of the Egotism of Modernism, radical autonomy, but leaves the artist open to both ethical flaccidity, as well as easy co-option by any greedy system.

Her argument goes back and forth on "how much life to include in your art" but ultimately argues that we HAVE BEEN suffering too long in the old frame. work, the demands for Ethical detachment, and now must embrace a whole-world idea, imbued at CORE with CARE ETHIC.

THE NEW AGE IS nothing to SNEER AT:

A theory - Modern Art is DEEPLY Influenced BY Occultism. Begin with Early 20thC Primitivism - emulating raw surfaces & AESTHETIC of authentic TRIBAL objects - and LATER, 20thC. NEO-PRIMITIVISM, AN EVOLUTION THE RESULT of COLLEGIATE ACADEMIA & "PAPERBACK SHAMANISM" (EASTONEDA) - the EASTERN INFLUENCE of I-Ching & the chance FASCINATION of John CADE - the ART of READY-MADES & nihilistic Duchampian CONCEPTS - Yves Klein the devout Rosicrucian (!) the certainty that MYSTICAL TRUTH LIES beneath & Art / may bring us to the surface - this is the REALITY of Occultism in Art, Art whose values HAVE become SYNONYMOUS with ESOTERICISM. (I can hear this AS one who embraces ESOTERICISM but IS wary/critical of the New Age sense of things, Capitalism seemingly swallowing the goals of mystic spirituality) Things i dont like - statements about "Acquisition of Nature" - Large Scale Earthworks - piping of "primitive" aesthetic cultural "ROMANTICISM" & too deep embrace of "Other" culture...
